Terms and conditions: I understand that, once registered, I am reserving one of a limited number of spaces in a DentaSpa training course and that my reservation may prevent another practitioner from participating in the course. As such, I understand that to avoid a $299 Rescheduling Fee, I am responsible for determining my availability in advance and will advise DentaSpa within two calendar weeks of the course date if I am unable to attend and need to reschedule. Because class sizes are limited and my cancellation may cause DentaSpa Seminars harm, I understand that DentaSpa offers rescheduling, but no refunds. My signature also guarantees that I will take it upon myself to ensure that the procedures being taught are legally permitted in my state of licensure under my Board's current laws and legislation. I am currently a licensed practitioner in good-standing with my state board.
